Comparative & Superlative degrees اِسْمُ التَّفْضِيلِ

Both comparative and superlative degrees in Arabic use the same word, which is on the pattern of أَفْعَلُ (Diptote). It is the same for singular and plural.

Adjective		Comparative		Superlative
Tall	طَوِيلٌ	Taller	أَطْوَلُ	Tallest	أَطْوَلُ
Small	صَغِيرٌ	Smaller	أَصْغَرُ	Smallest	أَصْغَرُ
Beautiful	جَمِيلٌ	More beautiful	أَجْمَلُ	Most beautiful	أَجْمَلُ
Good	حَسَنٌ	Better	أَحْسَنُ	Best	أَحْسَنُ

If اِسْمُ التَّفْضِيلِ is followed by مِنْ, the latter will be translated as "than", e.g. حَامِدٌ أَطْوَلُ مِنْ بِلَالٍ (Hamid is taller than Bilal)

If اِسْمُ التَّفْضِيلِ is followed by a noun in genitive case (مَجْرُورٌ), then it is to be translated as superlative degree, e.g. حَامِدٌ أَطْوَلُ طَالِبٍ فِي الْفَصْلِ (Hamid is the tallest student in the class)
